DESCRIBE THE PRESENT AND ORIGINAL (IF KNOWN) PHYSICAL APPEARANCE

This is a 2-1/2 story brick attached house being three bays wide and two bays in depth with a two story "L" shaped wing two bays wide and four bays long, formerly having a side balcony and now having two newer extensions--a two story brick structure to the rear, two bays wide and three bays long and one story, two bay long cement block addition to the right side of the wing. All brickwork is of painted common bond. The first floor front has been tastefully converted to a Colonial design. A rural Colonial crossbuck door with diamond shaped panes lies in the right bay. It is approached by a low porch with wrought iron railings. To the left is a rectangular 24 small paned window. Other Colonial embellishments are a coach lantern, a wall plaque, and a hanging plaque of rounded edges with "Little's Beauty Salon." The shop-front is crowned by a metal, concave-shaped pent roof cantilevered from the wall. The entrance to the apartments lies in the left bay and contains a glass paneled door headed by an old four pane overlight with a wood lintel with square end blocks carved with roundels. The soffit and frame of the doorway are paneled. This is approached by a low porch with iron railings as on the shop side. Second floor front windows are now of 1/1 sash with louvered shutters and wood lintels with square end blocks carved with roundels as over the doorway. Windows on the original wing are of 6/6 sash with wood lintels and sills. The front section roof is a metal, moderate slope "A" frame with an enclosed double flue chimney rising from the right wall. The wing has a steep metal shed roof. The front and rear rooflines are supported by three string brick cornices, but strangely, the rear one is decorated by having the middle course in a sawtooth pattern. The building rests on a low foundation.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

This is a very attractive addition to a row of fine Federal homes as the Colonial shopfront adds to the character of the block and to Market Street. The original decor of the second story and the Federal style cornice ties in with others of the same period. A very good example for further area restoration.
